IMMR219C

Special Topics in Immigration and Migration Studies; Anthropology and Immigration

Credits: 3

Grading Method: Regular, Pass-Fail, Audit

Thematic exploration of a topic in immigration or migration studies history at an introductory level with emphasis on understanding how the movement of people is relevant in the contemporary world.

Also offered as ANTH264. Credit granted for ANTH264 or IMMR219C. An examination of the phenomenon of international migration, or immigration. Students develop awareness of how immigration has been framed in the general public and examined by social science disciplines, most prominently anthropology. Examination of case studies of different immigrant groups in distinct geographic contexts will illuminate the varied incorporation experiences of immigrants into U.S. society.
